Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 1 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-10, drawn to computer to computer protocol implementing for controlling the format and relative timing of transfer of data between the computers in order to maintain communication, classified in class 709, subclass 230.
 - II. Claims 11-18, 29-32, drawn to reconfiguring wherein one of the computers transfers data (e.g., operating programs, etc.) to or from the functional configuration of one of the computers within the network after it has been established classified in class 709, subclass 221.
 - III. Claims 19-28, drawn to fault detection wherein the multiplexing communication system is tested for any nonstandard operating condition, classified in class 370, subclass 242.
2. The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I, II and III are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because the invention I is drawing to a method for configuring multiple processors into a multiprocessor system by determining whether a communication protocol used by the new device is compatible with any one of multiple different protocols used in the multiprocessor system. The subcombination has separate utility such as the invention II is drawing to a multiprocessing system for automobile comprising a dynamic configuration system operating in at least some of the multiprocessors that automatically incorporates new devices into the multiprocessing system and automatically reconfigures that multiprocessor system in real-time to run the automobile applications on processors in the multiprocessing system; the invention III is drawing to a method for configuring real-time applications in a distributed multiprocessor system comprising detecting a failure in one of the applications in the multiprocessor system.

3. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

4. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

5. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

6. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Phuongchau Ba Nguyen whose telephone number is 571-272-3148. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday-Friday from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m..

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Huy Vu can be reached on 571-272-3155. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 703-872-9306.
